VI. CONSERVATION OF THE WORLD’S VEGETATION
Concepción Fidalgo Hijano and Inés Sancho García

1. INTRODUCTION

2. FOREST RESOURCES
   2.1. The concept of forest
   2.2. Main functions of a forest
       2.2.1. Ecological function or regulator of biospheric dynamics
       2.2.2. Social function
       2.2.3. Economic function. Use of forest resources

3. EVALUATION OF WORLDWIDE FOREST RESOURCES
   3.1. Available sources of information
   3.2. Definitions of main concepts and homogenisation of questionnaires
   3.3. Analysis and evolution of forest resources
   3.4. Deforestation and forest degradation
       3.4.1. Agents, causes and consequences of deforestation
       3.4.2. The case of the tropical rainforest

4. DIRECTIVES FOR IMPROVED FOREST MANAGEMENT
   4.1. Conventions, agreements and initiatives related to forests
   4.2. Directives, criteria and indicators
       4.2.1. Improve information about forest resources
       4.2.2. Maintenance and conservation of flora
       4.2.3. Socio-economic development
       4.2.4. Political and institutional reforms

5. BIBLIOGRAPHY