5. SELECTION OF STUDENTS

5.1. Exchange Student Numbers

- (a) Each institution shall endeavor to send the number of Exchange Students specified in Annex 1 per year to the Host Institution for the Term.
- (b) The number of Exchange Students is intended to be reciprocal; however, the parties acknowledge that this may vary from time to time.

5.2. Selection of Students for the Exchange Program

- (a) Students shall submit their application for the Exchange Program with the Home Institution's Exchange Office.
- (b) The Home Institution shall consider applications by students seeking to enroll in the Exchange Program by clause 5.4.
- (c) The Home Institution's Exchange Office shall forward the completed applications that satisfy clause 5.4 on behalf of prospective Exchange Students to the Host Institution's Exchange Office in accordance with the Host Institution's application dates.
- (d) The Host Institution reserves the right to accept or refuse the admission of prospective Exchange Students seeking to enroll in the Exchange Program.
- (e) Upon determining the outcome of the applications submitted, the Host Institution shall:
  - (i) communicate the outcome of each application for enrolment in the Exchange Program to the Home Institution's Exchange Office; and
  - (ii) provide the Home Institution's Exchange Office with written confirmation of the students who have been accepted to the Exchange Program.

5.3. Selection of students for the Study Abroad Program

- (a) Reed Students shall submit their application to enroll in the UAM Study Abroad Program with the Home Institution's International Office.
- (b) The Home Institution shall consider applications by students seeking to enroll in the Study Abroad Program by clause 5.4.
- (c) The Host Institution reserves the right to accept or refuse the admission of prospective Study Abroad Students seeking to enroll in the UAM Study Abroad Program.
- (d) Upon determining the outcome of the applications submitted, the Host Institution shall:
  - (i) communicate the outcome of each application for enrolment in the Study Abroad Program to the Home Institution's Study Abroad Office; and
  - (ii) provide the Home Institution's Study Abroad Office with written confirmation of the students who have been accepted to the Study Abroad Program.

5.4. Eligibility

- (a) The entrance and eligibility criteria for prospective Exchange and Study Abroad Students wishing to enroll in the Exchange or Study Abroad Programs are set out in Annex 2.

(b) The parties acknowledge that the entrance and eligibility criteria specified in Annex 2 may, on mutual agreement, be amended from time to time.

(c) The Home Institution must not:

(i) allow any person to be enrolled in the Exchange or Study Abroad Programs unless they meet the entrance and eligibility criteria specified in Annex 2; or

(ii) represent to any person that they may enroll in or undertake the Exchange or Study Abroad Programs unless they meet the entrance and eligibility criteria specified in Annex 2 and are able to enroll as a student of the Host Institution for the Study Period.

6. HOST INSTITUTION - EXCHANGE AND STUDY ABROAD STUDENTS

6.1 Fees

(a) Exchange Students shall be exempt from the following fees that may be payable by students of the Host Institution from time to time:

(i) any application or admission costs;

(ii) any general service, tuition, and other related costs;

(iii) any orientation program costs; and

(iv) any costs for the supply of a transcript of results.

(b) In the case of Reed Study Abroad Students, the Host Institution will require Reed to pay the Study Abroad Program fee applicable (tuition) for the relevant year of admission to the program. (See ANNEX 3 for details)

(c) In the case of UAM Exchange Students, if students are eligible and meet the requirements, Reed is committed to finding a work-study job during the period of study at Reed to help defray room and board expenses.

6.2. Other Financial Responsibilities

(a) The Home Institution undertakes to advise students of the anticipated financial liabilities that are likely to be incurred during the Study Period prior to their acceptance of an offer for enrolment by the Host Institution.

(b) The parties agree that during the Study Period, the Exchange and Study Abroad Students shall be solely responsible for the following:

(i) all travel-related expenses;

(ii) medical and travel insurance as may be required by the Host Institution;

(iii) accommodation, living, and meal expenses;

(iv) all travel documentation and costs related to the visa application;

(v) study materials;

(vi) any other debts or liabilities that may be incurred.

6.3. Accommodation

(a) The Host Institution shall assist students in arranging suitable accommodation for the Study Period.

(b) The payment of any deposit, rent, service charges, or other expenses associated with the accommodation arranged pursuant to clause 6.3(a) remains the student's sole responsibility.

6.4. Facilities

Exchange and Study Abroad Students will be provided access to all facilities of the Host Institution as would usually be provided for any student enrolled at the Host Institution during the Study Period.

7. PROMOTION

Neither party is entitled to use the other party's name, logo, or any other related promotional material in its marketing activities, including recruitment of students and marketing, without the prior written consent of the other party.

8. REVIEW AND MONITORING COMMITTEE

8.1. The parties shall conduct an annual review of the Exchange and Study Abroad Programs on or around each anniversary of the date of the agreement. For this purpose, a Joint Coordination and Follow-up Commission shall be created, composed of two representatives appointed by each party.

8.2. During the review process, the parties shall endeavor to:

- (a) jointly identify any modifications to the Exchange and Study Abroad Programs and/or this Agreement as may be required;
- (b) take appropriate action, including amending this Agreement, to remedy any modifications to the Exchange or Study Abroad Programs and/or this Agreement that are identified; and
- (c) identify and pursue new opportunities for cooperation in the areas of scholarship and research.

8.3. Any disputes that may arise in the interpretation and fulfillment of this agreement shall be resolved by the Joint Coordination and Monitoring Committee.

8.4. On behalf of Reed College, the Associate Dean of Global Education or the person he/she delegates will form part of the Joint Coordination and Monitoring Commission. And on behalf of the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, the Vice Rector for Internationalization or person delegated by him/her and the Director of the International Relations and Mobility Service or person delegated by him/her.

9. PERIOD OF AGREEMENT AND TERMINATION

9.1. This agreement will come into effect from the date of signature by both parties and will remain in force for an initial period of four (4) years. After that, it shall be automatically renewed for an additional 4 years; notwithstanding the aforementioned, either party may terminate the agreement without penalties prior to written notice given to the other party six months in advance.

9.2. Such termination must not affect current students until completion of their academic program unless agreed otherwise between the parties.

9.3.1 The agreements are terminated by the fulfillment of the actions that constitute their object or by incurring a cause for termination. The following shall be causes for termination

- a) The expiration of the term of the agreement without having agreed to extend it.
- b) The unanimous agreement of all signatories.
- c) The breach of the obligations and commitments assumed by any of the signatories.

In this case, any of the parties may notify the non-compliant party of a requirement to comply within a certain period with the obligations or commitments that are considered to be non-compliant. This requirement shall be communicated to the person in charge of the mechanism for monitoring, surveillance and control of the execution of the agreement and to the other signatory parties.

If the non-compliance persists after the term indicated in the request, the party that sent the request will notify the signatory parties of the concurrence of the cause for termination and the agreement will be understood to be terminated. The termination of the agreement for this reason may entail the indemnification of the damages caused if this had been foreseen.

- d) By judicial decision declaring the nullity of the agreement.
- e) For any other cause other than the foregoing provided for in the agreement or in other laws.

9.3.2 Upon termination, this Agreement terminates as to its future performance, except for the enforcement of any rights or claims arising or having arisen prior to termination.

9.4. Upon termination of this Agreement, notwithstanding the termination and to the extent permitted by law, both parties must ensure that all programs that are subject to this Agreement and which are in progress at the date of termination are completed by either continuing to deliver to students the courses in which they are enrolled according to the terms of this Agreement or making all the necessary arrangements to have the program completed at another institution. In completing the delivery of the program, the parties must abide by all their obligations under this Agreement as if this Agreement was still in force.

9.5. Any notice of termination under this agreement shall be given in writing and sent by pre-paid post, email, or facsimiled transmission.
