HOUSING GUIDE
Your student accommodation abroad!
1 Start searching as soon as possible!

As soon as you know your destination and even before it is assigned to you, search and compare all available verified options online. You have sites like Erasmus Play at your disposal to compare prices and options.

2 Know your budget

It is essential to know in advance your budget and the costs you will have to cover each month of the year, so that you can choose accommodation that you can afford as it will be your main source of expenses.

The first month you will have to pay:
- the first month's rent,
- the deposit,
- the booking fee, if applicable.

The rest of the year:
- your monthly rent,
- electricity / gas and internet bills if they are not included in the rent,
- other costs not related to accommodation: studies, transport, food expenses, entertainment, etc.

Don’t forget you can ask for the Erasmus grant!

How to apply?

Even if grants are a great help to get off on the right foot, it is advisable to carefully anticipate your budget, as it can vary a lot depending on the destination.
3 Understand the rental process

Renting in most European countries is very similar: you agree on the monthly payment with the landlord and sign a rental contract. You pay the first month and a deposit. Through this simple process in many countries the accommodation is now rented to you.

Additionally, in countries like France and Germany you will need a Guarantor (a person who earns 3 times the price of your rent and guarantees to pay for you in case you are unable to pay). Some accommodation platforms or some companies can stand in as Guarantor for you for free or for a low subscription price.

In Germany, the landlords might even want to interview you and ask to prove that you are a student.

BEWARE OF SCAMS!

Don’t trust anything that is too good to be true, very cheap prices for incredible location and nice accommodation.

Use google maps to check how far the accommodation is from your place of studies.

Be sceptical of landlords asking you to send money to their account or through Western Union. Always try to use a safe platform to book.

Insist on doing a video call with the landlord to view the flat if there is no other verification process available.

Search only on verified and secure platforms, where there is a granted protection for you.

Try your best to visit the accommodation in person or know that it is verified before making any payments.

If the landlord is never available or is outside the country, be sceptical, it might be a fraud.

Organise the housework: it is important that you divide up the tasks as soon as possible. Making a common calendar can help!

Share common expenses: Some rents don’t include common expenses such as internet or heating.

Respect the privacy of your roommates: The bedroom is the most important space for privacy in the house.

Let them know when someone is visiting you: Try to not bother your flatmates with parties or meetings when they want to study or sleep.

Make plans together: To improve your relationship with your flatmates, there is nothing better than making plans together!

UNDERSTAND YOUR CONTRACT

1. Monthly rent
   Ask the landlord if the monthly rent is going to be the same every month. As it might vary from month to month.

2. Housing expenses
   Are the utility bills (internet, water, electricity) included in the monthly price or will you have to pay for it at the end of each month? If so, how much can it be approximately?

3. Duration of contract
   Does the lease match the period of your stay? If not, make sure you can leave the accommodation before the date indicated, and find out how long the notice period is.

4. Rules and regulations
   Know the rules of the accommodation that you should abide.

5. Deposit & Commissions
   Depending on who you are renting with, you might have to pay a booking fee or administration one time fee. Know the amount too.

What’s a deposit?
   The deposit is a guarantee which will be given back to you after your stay if you leave the accommodation in the same condition as it was when you entered. The deposit is usually 1 or 2 times the first month rent.
