Fourth edition

“Spanish Law, Politics and Economy”

13-24 June, 2016

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

FACULTAD
DE DERECHO

Description:

This two-week course, taught in English, aims to provide students with an introduction to current topics of the Spanish legal, political and economic reality. There are several visits, guided by experts, to some of the most emblematic judicial, political and financial institutions in Madrid.

Course of Study:

The objective of this short-term course is to provide students with an introduction to current topics of the Spanish legal, political and economic reality. Interactive discussions and audio-visual materials complement the lectures.

The program includes several visits guided by experts to some of the most emblematic judicial, political and financial institutions located in Madrid.

The teaching staff is made up primarily of UAM professors. Some guest professors from other universities and experts from different institutions also participate in the course.

Students can achieve 3 ECTS upon attending the sessions, participating in the scheduled activities and passing the evaluation tests.

Schedule:

The daily activities start at 9:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. with a 2 hour break from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m.

The morning sessions will take place in Madrid and the afternoon sessions at the Cantoblanco UAM campus, easily reachable by public transportation.
