Before applying for admission to the doctoral programme, the Academic Committee recommends that the candidate first speaks or makes contact with a professor who is committed to supervising the doctoral thesis.

It is essential to submit a motivation letter (the form is available on the UAM website: http://www.uam.es/EscuelaDoctorado/\(es\_ES\)-Cómo-solicitar-la-admisión/1446747546537.htm?language=es\_ES&nDept=5&nodepath=Cómo\_solicitar\_la\_admisión-Cómo-solicitar-la-admisión/1446747546537.htm?language=es_ES&nDept=5&nodepath=Cómo_solicitar_la_admisión)). If possible, it should be signed by a professor at the Autonomous University of Madrid who will be in charge of supervising the doctoral thesis. To that end I would like to share with you the names and e-mail addresses of the professors who coordinate each one of the doctoral programme's lines of research so that you can contact them about the thesis topic you would like to explore and also ask them for guidance on which professor(s) you should contact to present this topic (or topics) and ask them if they would be willing to be your thesis supervisor.

The doctoral programme comprises five lines of research or paths:

-Music and Performing Arts. Coordinators: Dr. Germán Labrador López de Azcona, german.labrador@uam.es and Dr. José Luis Carles (joseluis.carles@uam.es)
