

Jean Monnet CiCe First Research Student Conference

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Spain
14-16 June 2016

New Researchers for the New Europe Education, Citizenship and Social Justice: Innovation Practices and Research

Key information

- The Student Conference provides an opportunity for research students to
 - present papers to an audience of fellow-research students and get peer feed-back
 - to participate in sessions on the research process and to discuss research issues with experienced and active researchers
 - to help develop a network of contacts
- Proposals are invited on citizenship and related topics: social justice, migration, acculturation, identity issues, ethnic relationships, diversity, intercultural issues, social exclusion-inclusion, inter-group relationships, historical culture, environmental issues, etc. Papers are welcome from different disciplines including education, sociology, political science, history, psychology and philosophy.

- There will be Best Paper Awards to those who show the highest level of excellence in their work.
- Papers accepted for publication will be published in the main conference proceedings and so be brought to the attention of researchers across Europe and beyond.
- The student conference welcomes participants, who present a paper, and audience members, who do not present a paper but form part of the audience.
- The number of participants who will be selected to present their papers is limited to twelve. The number of audience participants will not be limited.
- Presenting participants are expected to be present in all sessions of the student conference, from the very beginning to the very end.
- The conference will start on Tuesday 14th June with afternoon registration and opening sessions. On Wednesday 15th June there will be both morning and afternoon sessions from 9.00 am. On Thursday June 16th there will be only a morning session until 12.30 followed by a farewell lunch and the presentation of Best Student Conference Paper awards at the end of the main Conference Opening Plenary Session (starting in the afternoon).
- After the Research Student Conference students can attend the Main Jean Monnet CiCe Network & CiCea Conference, which immediately follows (CiCe Association website <http://www.cicea.eu/> for further information about the main conference).
- The fee for the Student Conference is €60; the combined fee (Student Conference + Main CiCe Conference) is €120. The conference fees cover meals and refreshments in the conference sessions. They DO NOT cover the main conference dinner and travel or accommodation.
- We will try our best to reserve places for students to stay at minimal cost. Please see below and refer to the CiCe Association website (www.cicea.eu)
- There are 3 bursaries available each 200 Euro. Those students who would like to apply should follow the instructions below and refer to the CiCe Association website (www.cicea.eu)

Conference Scientific Committee

Chair:

- Márta Fülöp, Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Committee Members:

- Chris Gifford, Huddersfield University, UK
- Penelope Harnett, University of West of England, UK
- Roger Johansson, Lund University, Sweden
- Antal Örkeny, Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Key dates

➤ 30 January 2016

All proposals must be submitted via the online form:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/studentconferenceapplication>

Regrettably we cannot consider proposals submitted after this date.

➤ 12 February 2016

By this date the Scientific Committee will consider proposals and notify all proposers.

➤ 22 May 2016

All selected papers must be submitted by email to cice@londonmet.ac.uk

How to make a proposal or book a place

Proposals MUST be submitted via the student conference proposal link on <http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/studentconferenceapplication>. We cannot accept proposals that are submitted by any other means.

The deadline for all proposals is 30 January 2016

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/studentconferenceapplication>

CiCe Research Student Conference: What to include with your proposal

You must submit an abstract of no more than 500 words. The abstract is used by the Conference Scientific Committee to decide if your paper appears to be of sufficient quality to be selected. The abstract should describe your proposal, telling your audience what it is about. Please write in full sentences not bullet points.

ABSTRACT - 500 words maximum

What to include:

- a Title of the paper, the author and the affiliation
- a Summary of the project: what you have set out to do, how you have done it, the key findings and results. This consists of the following:
- an Introduction: clear statement of the problem that you are addressing, and a short theoretical background. These should then lead to declarations of project aims and objectives
- Methodology: participants of the study (if applicable), the basis of the technique that you are using or the procedure that you have adopted in your study
- a Results section: show illustrative examples of the main results of the work
- a Conclusion section, listing the main findings of your investigation, and
- Further Work: recommendations and thoughts about how the work could be progressed; other tests that could be applied, etc

BURSARY

Please note that there are only FIVE bursaries available. Bursaries can only be awarded to individuals registered at universities that are part of the CiCe network* who are proposing high quality papers. To apply for a bursary you should also submit the following with your proposal:

(1) Curriculum Vitae

one page in length, with details of your academic qualifications, previous and current research projects, details of scholarships obtained and held (and the purpose for which they were awarded); details of other seminars and conferences you have attended; details of any published works; other achievements.

(2) Letter of Application

This should explain why you think you deserve to be given a bursary. This may include reference to your financial circumstances (please note that holders of bursaries will be responsible for their own travel and accommodation costs).

(3) Letter of Support

This should be made by your supervisor or another academic referee, who should indicate their support for your application and set out the academic strengths of your studies and proposed paper.